Congregation Asks Erection of Third Church Building

$25,000 Must Be Raised to Help Project Financing

The congregation of Orinda Community Church voted last Sunday in an after-service business meeting, to ask its Board of Trustees to take all necessary steps toward immediate erection of a third church building unit and remodeling of the present church building as an enlarged social hall.

The action was recommended by the trustees following detailed planning, preparation of blueprints and specifications under direction of a special building committee, and submission of bids totaling approximately $68,500 for the two projects.

Moderator Ralph H. [illegible] presided at the session.

MUST RAISE $25,000

The hurdle faced by the church leaders is the immediate task of raising $25,000 in cash to supplement bank backing of the project.

Unsettled building conditions and rising costs dictate necessity for the earliest possible letting of the contract, according to Leo J. Alexander, building committee chairman.

DEBT RETIRED

Payments on a total sum of $36,000 pledged in a campaign in May, 1949, have made possible completion of extensive road and grading work on the church's one-and-a-quarter acre property on Irwin Road adjacent to the Community Center, and retiring of all indebtedness on existing structures.

Contributions of members and constituents of the church have built and paid for improvements costing in excess of $63,000 during the past three years, according to the most recent estimates. The number of supporters has grown by 60 per cent in that period, the Rev. Fred Morrow reports.

COMMITTEE

Responsibility for implementing the church's decision rests with the stewardship committee, appointed by the Board of Trustees and headed by Joseph R. Creighton. Other members of the committee are Harold Hawes, Arthur D. Henry, John Laird, James D. North, Kirk Miles, Douglas Pimentel, J. C. Pyle, Edward J. Turk, Fred N. Twining and Harvey Wehmeier.

New construction has been made necessary by the large influx of new Protestant families into the Orinda area and by extensive use of church facilities as a community center by civic and character-building agencies. A 50 per cent increase annually in Sunday church school attendance has crowded present quarters to almost twice their normal capacity, according to reports of the superintendent, Everett D. Howe.

The proposed new structure will contain a chapel which will serve church worship needs and as an assembly for children's and youth department. Six new classrooms are provided, as well as space on a lower floor for future construction of six additional rooms.

SOCIAL HALL

The enlarged social hall will serve the school's swollen primary grades and give more adequate facilities for church social and community affairs.

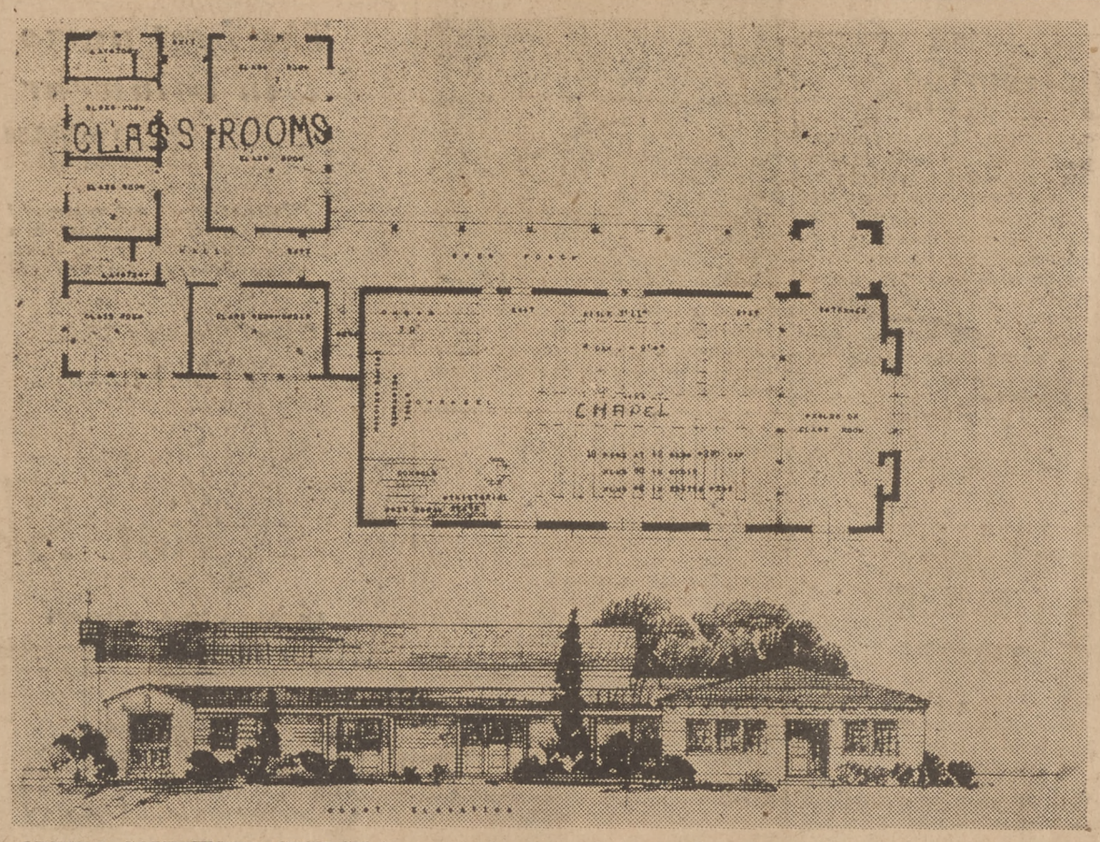
The church is now furnishing housing for the branch County Library, Girl Scout and Brownie groups, the Dramateurs, the Camera Club, civic associations, the cooperative nursery school, the Orinda Masonic lodge and other groups in addition to its own numerous around-the-week activities.

HARD BUT NECESSARY

In commenting on the admittedly difficult but necessary financial task currently being faced by the church, B. O. Wilson, chairman of the Board of Trustees, told the congregation Sunday:

"It is inconceivable that Orinda, with its boundless resources, will fail to provide the necessary minimum of facilities for the religious and character training of its youth, and a sanctuary at least worthily consistent with the high standard set by its homes and other institutions."

Long-range plans call for a fourth and final building to house Orinda's united Protestant congregation at the earliest possible date following completion of payments on the unit now being projected.



ORINDA COMMUNITY CHURCH is progressing toward construction of its third building unit. At a business session last Sunday the congregation instructed the board to take immediate steps in that direction. (See story, this issue.) These drawings convey an idea of the scope of the project. Above are architectural plans, showing an arrangement of classrooms and chapel. Below is a sketch of the exterior.

New Gambling? D.A. Doesn't Know About It

"No reports, no complaints" is what District Attorney Francis W. Collins stated this week in response to a query as to whether he knew anything about recent reports of widespread gambling in the county.

The SUN telephoned Collins Tuesday and asked him if he had read The Knave's column in last Monday's Oakland Tribune, in which operation of new-type gambling devices was reported in evidence throughout this area (See editorial page.)

DOESN'T SUBSCRIBE

The D.A. said he hadn't read the column and that he subscribes to three papers, none of them the Tribune. "No reports, no complaints," he added.

When the SUN reporter described the claw machines reported by The Knave (a variation of the old-style miniature steam shovels), Collins laughingly remarked, "You sound as if you've played them."

Further attempt to describe the claw machines to the district attorney elicited the comment, "I don't know what you're talking about."

1-BALL PIN GAMES

One-ball pin games as well as claw machines were mentioned by The Knave, who stated that the U. S. Internal Revenue Bureau had issued 1,081 gambling device certificates in Northern California since July, when a state law banning such devices became effective.

All this was recounted to Collins, who told the SUN he'd look into the situation and would talk to the reporter again in a few days, after he'd had a chance to investigate.

$100!—Hats Off To Dramateurs

To the Orinda Dramateurs, that sprightly, scintillating and public-spirited dramatic group, the SUN doffs its hat this week.

Familiar to drama-lovers as a purveyor of fine acting and good plays, this group does not rest on its thespian laurels.

Entering their 1950-51 season, with rehearsals underway for their first production of the dramatic year, the Dramateurs have just donated $100 to the Orinda Association. This action was taken unanimously at a Dramateurs meeting, after being brought up on the floor.

In making the donation, the Dramateurs expressed hope it would aid in development of the Orinda Community Center. That center will be a social and cultural gathering-place, facilitating drama presentation along with other activities.

The Orinda Association's board has thanked the Dramateurs. And the SUN is proud to add:

Hats off to the Orinda Dramateurs!

That 'Bomb'—It Sure Gave Orinda Case of Jitters

A bomb is a bomb, and to the uninitiated looks just as lethal whether it has a slight coating of rust or is new and shiny, when it's found just kicking around.

Such an object caused rather widespread consternation in various parts of Central Contra Costa County last Wednesday when children in the Five Corners sector of Orinda found one in a ditch near a vacant lot in the vicinity, and decided it made a modern, up-to-date toy.

A BIT UPSET

U. B. Smith of Via Hermosa was a bit upset when he found the youngsters playing with what looked suspiciously like a bomb, complete with the accepted fins and elongated two-and-a-half foot shape that goes, shall we say, bang-in-bang with aerial bombs.

Taking the object to Orinda Fire Department for inspection, Smith found the personnel also unsure of the "toy" and the sheriff's office was called. A deputy dispatched by radio also inspected the "find" and decided to take it in to the home office, notifying Radio Dispatcher Steve Rossi.

Rossi, who recently completed a course in military matters, decided very quickly that the bomb, if it was one, had been kicked around enough already for one day, and urged that it be left some safe place, preferably way out there, till demolition experts could be summoned from Port Chicago Navy Magazine.

OFFICIALLY DESCRIBED

The expert and Deputy Sheriff William Faulkner rendezvoused with the still peaceful bomb, and Navy Expert W. A. Mayer defined the party of the third part as a practice bomb of an old type, not generally used now.

Removal of the now officially tabbed object took a load off a lot of minds in Central Contra Costa County Wednesday. Though vouched for as "harmless," the bomb went back with the Navy expert, just so people won't "worry about these things when they're around loose."

Lorenzen Permit Granted by Board

With approval previously given by the Glorietta Improvement Association and with recommendation by the Planning Commission, the application of Ernest J. Lorenzen to have a 10-foot side yard on one side and a 15-foot setback was okayed by the Board of Supervisors Monday.

The land use permit is for a portion of Lot 115 ,Map of Rancho Laguna de Los Palos Colorados, at Valley Drive, an R-A district.

The Planning Commission Tuesday recommended that the supervisors grant a permit to Everett MacQuiddy for a 10-foot side yard for one side of a house on portions of Lots 3 and 4, Lost Valley Estates, fronting approximately 175 feet on south side of Lost Valley Drive (R-A).

Commuter Action Tuesday on Bus Service Dispute

President Edward F. Klick of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association will finish his year at the helm when he presides over the annual meeting of members and election of officers next Tuesday, 8 p.m., at the Veterans Memorial Hall in Lafayette.

The entire membership is asked to attend and vote on a number of proposals for action to be taken by the Board of Directors to try to obtain more Greyhound bus service to relieve the present overcrowded conditions morning and evening. According to Irving C. Roemer, chairman of the membership committee, there are now 507 members.

SPOON TO REPORT

Vice-President Kenneth S. Spoon will report on the so-far successful outcome of the hearing conducted by the Public Utilities Commission on Greyhound's application for higher commute rates, the interim increase having been recently denied.

However, last week this decision was appealed and apparently new action by the commuters is necessary.

TO ELECT 7

Seven new directors will be elected to replace those whose terms expire this year. Directors who will continue for another year are Charles Barber, Lafayette; Edward F. Klick, Concord! Frank Brigham, Walnut Creek; John E. McKirahan, Lafayette; Emmit Samon, Orinda; E. C. Nevins, Pleasant Hill; Kenneth S. Spoon, Walnut Creek, and Edward H. Moore, Alamo. Directors will meet a few days after the election and select a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer to serve for the following year.

CAR-POOL RIDERS

Membeship in the association is open to all residents of Contra Costa County who travel regularly to places of business in Oakland, San Francisco or adjacent points. in addition to bus riders, a large number of car-pool riders and private drivers are members.

Appreciation has been expressed by the association for the assistance given during the first rate hearing by Supervisors Cummings and Taylor and District Attorney Francis W. Collins, as well as the many chambers of commerce and service clubs who protested to the Public Utilities Commission against increasing commuter rates.

Immel Gets Job Of San Pablo Rd.

Contract for resurfacing San Pablo Creek Highway from Orinda Crossroads to Miner Road has been awarded to the L. J. Immel Company of San Pablo on a low bid received by the Board of Supervisors.

The job, which calls for a two-and-a-half inch thick plant-mix surface, will cost $13,199.37.

Steps Taken to Set Up Disaster Program Here

Civilian defense for Orinda moved a step nearer this week with announcement that the Orinda Association is cooperating with the sheriff's office toward establishment of a disaster relief setup for the area.

Under the State Disaster Act, the sheriff is director of the county disaster council for the unincorporated areas. Detailed working out of plans must fit into the state and national arrangements.

DISCUSSED AT MEETING

Disaster relief was discussed at Monday night's meeting of the Orinda Association's Board of Directors. General feeling was that the association should take necessary steps which, whatever the final plans are, will facilitate the setup and educate the people.

It was agreed that the next community meeting sponsored by the association should highlight the general subject of civilian defense, but that it would be best not to hold such a meeting until federal, state and county plans had been hammered out and were definitely known.

1ST PART OF NOV.

President Marvin Bonds suggested that the first part of November would be a good time for a community meeting, since by then more information on civilian defense would probably be available.

Mrs. Roberta Spiegl, board secretary, was instructed to find out when the Orinda Grammar School auditorium would be available during the first couple of weeks in November, so that arrangements could proceed.

Orinda Assoc. Endorses Fire District Bonds

Orinda Association's Board of Directors Monday night unanimously endorsed the proposed $130,000 fire district bond issue on which Orindans will vote November 21.

The funds would be used for necessary development of the district's fire protection and fire-fighting, with $75,000 to be spent for construction of a second fire house at Orchard Road and Moraga Highway and for acquisition of a Sleepy Hollow site. The other $55,000 would be used later for construction of a third fire house at the Sleepy Hollow location.

Board Secretary Roberta Spiegl read a letter she had written to the Draymen's Association of Alameda County, asking for cooperation in easing early morning highway traffic at Orinda by the possible shifting of certain truck schedules.

Approval was expressed of the Civic Affairs Committee plans for an all-out membership drive for the association, to be conducted in November, so as to aid the association to acquire an adequate operating budget and to further the development of the Orinda Community Center.

2 Die, 2 Hurt in Car Crashes Here

Two deaths and two injuries were the grim score of automobile accidents in this area this week.

Dead as the result of a car-crash into the stone wall of the Orinda Country Club were Mrs. Ethelwynne Jane Labadie, 36, of Oakland, and Richard Reid Barta, 37, of Lomita Park.

Injured in a three-car collision on Mt. Diablo Boulevard near El Nido, seven-tenths of a mile west of the Lafayette business section, were Leonard Bolgen, 39, and Robert Applegate, 27 ,both of Concord.

INSTANTLY KILLED

The fatal accident occurred early Sunday morning. According to the California Highway Patrol, Barta was instantly killed and Mrs. Labadie died before medical aid arrived.

The three-car collision occurred at 7:05 a.m. Tuesday, during the morning rush period. Bolgen and Applegate, both sustaining minor injuries, were taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital by a passing motorist.

MISSED TURN

The crash at the Country Club wall was believed to have happened when the sedan, traveling at high speed, failed to negotiate a turn and smashed into the retaining wall at the intersection of San Pablo Creek Road and Camino Sobrante. Mrs. Labadie, a widow who was an air lines nurse, is believed to have been driving. Barta was owner of the car.

Richard H. McKenzie, 4 Camino Sobrante, told Highway Patrol Sergeant A. C. Hein that at about 12:30 a.m. Sunday he heard the car rush by at about 60 miles an hour and that it failed to make a turn. He added that he heard the brakes applied when the car was 10 or 15 feet from the wall, and that the car struck the wall and bounced back some five feet.

TRAFFIC BACKED UP

Drivers in the three-car collision near El Nido, which backed up traffic for three miles, were Carl Frank Lind, 59, Oakland; Willie Hall, 51, Richmond, and Americo George Grande, 42, Concord.

Lind's car, going east, was sideswiped by a truck, also east-bound, driven by Hall, according to the Highway Patrol. Forced out of its lane, the car driven by Lind smashed head-on into one driven by Grande which was traveling west. Bolgen and Applegate were passengers in the Grande car.

Incorporation? Topic Goes Back To Civic Affairs

Bounced back to the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee this week, from the organization's Board of Directors, was the subject of incorporation.

At Monday night's board meeting at Orinda Grammar School, Secretary Mrs. Roberta Spiegl produced a lengthy report by the League of California Cities on the community of Atascadero. She moved that the Civic Affairs Committee set up a group to study the Atascadero report.

Seconded by Horace Breed, the motion was passed.

U.C. SPEAKERS

Mrs. Spiegl reported that the League of California Cities also informed her that Professor Samuel C. May of the University of California's School of Public Administration had speakers available on the subject of incorporation.

President Marvin Bonds recalled that a year ago only nine persons showed up at a meeting on the subject, and that a questionnaire then had shown that the people, while in favor of certain benefits to be derived from incorporation, were overwhelmingly against any necessary taxes in connection with it.

ROTE ON BOARD

The board also took the following actions:

Named Harold Rote of the Moraga Del Rey Community Association to the board, to replace Fred Thiele, who has moved from the community. (The term expires in January, 1952, but in order to continue until then Rote will have to be chosen by the membership in this December's association election.)

Directed Mrs. Spiegl to write County Road Commissioner Joseph W. Barkley asking about (1) cutting back of the sidewalks on Moraga Highway in front of Orinda Hardwart and Sproise-Reitz to aid road widening, (2) progress on a county survey on feasibility of providing a road off Moraga Highway in that vicinity so that motorists could return to Mt. Diablo Boulevard without making a U-turn, (3) the matter of road signs for both county and non-county roads in the area.

NOT NEW

All three of these matters have been kicked about for some time. In July Barkley and Supervisor Jack Cummings had agreed to give the street widening and the need for an additional road serious consideration. Funds for the street widening were included in the 1950-51 county budget.

On motion of Bob Clough, it was decided to have a planning committee named which would develop a sort of "master plan" for future planning of the business section and would take in both sides of the highway. Bonds appointed Breed chairman of this new group, which is planned to include representatives of the board and the Civic Affairs Committee. It is hoped that the Orinda Chamber of Commerce will also be represented on it.

Camera Club's Awards Oct. 10

Members of the Contra Costa Camera Club are looking forward to their October 10 dinner meeting at the Willows when the annual trophies will be awarded to the print competitors of the past year.

Dr. Irving Ellis will be the judge.

Hearing Oct. 23 On Annexation To Fire District

Resolution of intention to annex Moraga Del Rey Unit No. 1 to the Orinda County Fire Protection District was adopted Monday by the County Board of Supervisors, and a hearing on the matter was set for 10 a.m. October 23.

Supervisorial action followed approval last week of the area's withdrawal from the Eastern Contra Costa Fire District.

Fall Opening

Go West, young man, in Hopalong Cassidy Western britches, styled with a twisted "lariat" braid on cavalry twill and a Western shirt. At Kiddietown, Lafayette.

Sheath Silhoutte, Shorter Lengths–

The sheath silhouette, the shorter lengths, the free use of braiding, cord and velvet, the abundance of plum tones, plaids and tweeds and woolens of many textures all predict the casual, accented with the elegant, for the fashion season of Fall-and-Winter 1950.

Choose Fall '50's suit of sleek sheen gabardines. It will be deep plum in tone, styled with a slim, slim skirt relieved for walking by pleats placed low or a buttoned slit It will have a long-line jacket (26-inches) with sleeves that melt into the shoulders; a long, narrow rever collar or French-imported horse-shoe neckline and gently padded arched hips.

Choose your first dress of Fall. This year, it's the color "black." It's a wallpaper-snug sheath of wool crepe, relieved by a pleated flounce around the hemline; femininely lovely with its scooped-out neck-line, its unmounted sleeves and exciting touches of self-color braid or velvet.

Conservative Is The Fabric

Sharkskin patterns, window panes and overplaid effects, neat and conservative in outlook, promise to hold great appeal in menswear this Fall.

These patterns will predominate on worsteds, tweeds and shetlands.

Important suit fabrics for back-to- collegiates will include tweeds and similar rough-hewn fabrics, flannels in medium to dark shades of grey and gabardine.

Men's Shoes Take On Dressy Look

With many Fall suits and top-coats taking on a dressier look, shoes of necessity are following suit, says the National Shoe Institute.

The new dressed up feeling will increase men's demand for the town or custom-type of last. Medallion and wing-tip brogues will be more in evidence than moccasin-front shoes to accompany the new dark suits. These shoes look best in the dark brown leathers.

Many young men, who formerly wore one pair of brogues for everything and thought of black shoes as an old fashioned whim of grandfathers, are buying them this year to wear with their dark grey flannels and navy worsteds to business and out to dinner after five.

The jersey "Harlequin" blouse takes a bow. Right for Fall with a mushroom pleated jersey skirt. The orange and grey blouse by Dorothy Korby.

To wear with slim Fall suits, asymetrical "Velvet Step" pumps. of velvety suede are suggested by Henry Thornbro of Thorn's Shoes, Lafayette.

Round Collar Shirt Hit With Men

New shirts for Fall '50 offer special fashion interest in new rounded point collar styles and different effects in fabric weaves.

The rounded point collar will be shown in plain and button-down styles. Medium and widespread collars will be available with special attention paid, this Fall, to the fused collar.

Young Ladies Happy in Fall Plaid Dresses

Plaids are the fashion for the whole family this year. So it's only to be expected that the very young lady of the house will be wearing them too and wearing them more charmingly and prettily than any one else in the family!

Skirts, jumpers and tiny little suits are all being made in colorful clan plaids. Many of them feature all-around pleated skirts and in most, the pleats are stitched-in so that the skirts stay trim and neat no matter how energetic the young lady's play. In many of these suits, a demure bonnet or Scotch cap in a matching plaid gives that extra touch of style.

For birthday and other special occasions, the plaid theme appears, in diminutive little party dresses of crisp rayon taffeta. Some have lace collars, some have smocking across the shoulders and a few pert little dresses come with tiny plaid panties to match.

HONOR CARLOS ROSAS

Carlos Rosas, youngest member of the faculty of the University of Mexico, will be guest of honor at the Second Annual Inter-Racial Folk Dance Festival of Northern California tomorrow evening in the Veterans Memorial, Grand and Montecito, Oakland.

Inexperienced Acalanes Eleven Beaten, 30-7, by El Cerrito—36 Dons in Action

The Acalanes Dons had their hands full and then some last Friday night as the El Cerrito Gauchos reeled off yardage and first downs for a 30-7 win.

The Dons had but few bright spots as their inexperienced eleven found the visitors hitting for three touchdowns in the first half on 10, 19 and 94 yard runs.

The opening of the second half found but a minute and a half gone when Gaucho Don Stewart sped 40 yards for six.

PEARSON SCORES

In the same frame speedy Joie Pearson of Acalanes hit off tackle on a hand-off, cut to the left and took advantage of some good blocking to scamper over the goal line sixty yards away.

The Gauchos came back, however, when fullback Willie Wallace hit pay dirt from five yards out.

36 IN ACTION

The game found the Don coaches cleaning the bench as 36 players saw action in order to discover any hidden talent.

Tonight the Dons meet up with Albany High, with the kickoff signal due at 8 p.m. under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field.

Elsewhere in the county, Pittsburg dropped to Fresno, 26-12; Antioch won over San Rafael, 31-14; Diablo pasted Analy, 31-12; John Swett registered a win over St. Vincent's, 28-6; and Alhambra tied Tracy, 13-13.

100 Women Attend Girl Scout Meet

More than 100 women attended Monday's Mt. Diablo Area Girl Scout Conference and Skills workshop at Lafayette Town Hall.

That the all-day leadership conference accomplished its objective of stimulating interest and improving methods for Girl Scouting in the area was the opinion of those in charge of the sessions, after they were over.

General chairman was Mrs. Lolita Bumgarner, who started the day's program by welcoming the women present and explaining the purpose of the gathering. She introduced Council President Ruth Pape and Executive Secretary Marion Conklin.

TRAIL-MAKING

Among the highlights of the confab were:

1. — Demonstration of trail-making and trail signs by Gordon Hawkins, executive director for the Diablo Area Boy Scout organization.

2. — Conducting of a "skeleton" Toastmaster meeting by Bud McCarthy, president of the Walnut Creek Toastmasters Club, whose theme was "How to Make a Speech and Like It."

GIRL SCOUT MOVIE

3. — Showing of a Girl Scout training film, with Rev. Harry Shaner of Lafayette Community Methodist Church operating the projector.

In addition, discussion panels were held on troop committees, senior scouting, troop finance, "Where do I belong in Scouting?" and problems of seventh and eighth grade leaders.

During the afternoon, skills and workshop demonstrations included puppets, first aid, stenciling, birds, stars, outdoor cooking, basketry and pottery.

Wayne Dodd Has Fifth Birthday Party

Wayne Dodd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dodd of St. Mary's Estates, celebrated his fifth birthday last Saturday. Those present were Bobby and Freddy Nadel, Marshall Milburn, Skipper Frasch and Jay Byrne. The party table had gay balloons and plastic trucks filled with candy, and the cake was decorated to look like a "merry-go-round" with five candles in animal holders marching around the cake.

McElroy Honored On 70th Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. McElroy of Bickerstaff Road observed McElroy's 70th birthday with a dinner-dancing party at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley last Friday evening

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. McElroy, Jr., of Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. John Richard Sparrowe of Pleasant Acres, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. McElroy of Santa Cruz and Mr. and Mrs. James J. McElroy of Meadow Village near Concord.

Season's First Games Bring Gridiron Prospects Into Sharper Focus for Fans

By COACH ERWIN MATTSON

LAST WEEK'S high school games showed that Diablo and Antioch are likely to prove to be league favorites, while Alhambra, Pittsburg and John Swett all rate in the "dark horse" class.

The Dons took a licking from El Cerrito, but there were several bright spots. The coaches threw 36 players into the fray and now have a much better idea regarding the players on hand.

Joeie Pearson showed that he could go all the way when given a chance.

Eddie Grueb was the most consistent runner, as he averaged six yards a carry.

Richard Osmundsen's kicking was above par as he had better than a 40-yard average and good height.

The Dons used a split line on punt formation cross blocking in the backfield, which gave four men a chance to get downfield.

THE TEAM made many mistakes, and tackling, along with blocking, showed need for considerable improvement.

On the whole squad there wasn't a player who had ever started in a varsity game.

They were jumpy and nervous, as a result, and found it difficult to settle down to a steady game. In spots the play was good only to have relapses upset the applecart.

EL CERRITO presented a well-drilled team, aided and abetted by a set of backs with more than average speed.

It will be interesting to see what the outcome will be when they meet up with Alhambra High tonight.

Andy Monsen proved to be one of the better linebackers. He weighs over the 200 mark and proved to be agile enough to do a bang-up job for a sophomore.

RÉPORTS HAVE IT that former Dons Ed Bill and Orlando Chiavini did O.K. in holding down first string tackle jobs for Contra Costa J.C. last Friday night at Richmond.

Contra Costa, incidentally, came from behind after Marin tallied 12 points in the first five minutes.. Final score was: Contra Costa, 14; Marin, 12.

GRID FANS can see another former Don in action on the gridron this Sunday when the Los Angeles Rams come to town. Stub Van Brocklin will probably see considerable action at quarterback, along with Bob Waterfield of U.C.L.A. fame.

Stub did his college work at Oregon and made All-American. He has been an early season sensation and it appears that a great career in the pro ranks is in the making.

ANOTHER EX-DON may be seen in action on the baseball diamond in an Oaks uniform. Don Ferrarese has been with them the past two weeks, after a season at Wenatchee in Washington.

Don is rated a top prospect and is given an even chance to get a whirl at Pacific Coast batters in the near future. His curve ball rates with the best and his fast ball has a real hop.

National Newspaper Week Is Meant for All of Us

Next week (October 1-8) is National Newspaper Week.

Sponsored by Newspaper Association Managers, Inc., the week is one in which newspapers throughout tht nation try to acquaint readers with the story of the newspapers; at the same time, it serves to rededicate the papers to community service.

For the SUN, such observance is particularly fitting, for we depend on our readers to make the paper successful and to reflect the life of the community.

So we'd like to invite you, again, to send in your ideas, suggestions, news tips, and to visit our plant and see what makes "the wheels go round."

With the theme "Truth to a Free People," National Newspaper Week underscores the American heritage of a free press. The SUN is proud to be part of that heritage.

But our pride would be short-lived were it not for the interest and participation of our readers. So, in a very real sense, National Newspaper Week is not only an event for your community newspaper, but also one for you, upon whom the SUN depends.

Legislature's Special Session Topics: Schools, Subversives, Social Welfare

By ASSEMBLYMAN ROBERT L. CONDON

Schools, subversives and social welfare are the subpects of the present special session of the legislature.

For the fourth time in two years the governor has found it necessary to call the senate and assembly back into extraordinary session. Under the state constitution, of course, the legislators can only consider those subject matters that the governor pute before us.

SCHOOLS — In November, 1949 the people approved a 250 million dollar bond issue to help eliminate the schoolhouse shortage.

Moneys were made available to the various school districts, provided that the district had bonded itself within 95 per cent of its legal limit, and provided further that the voters approved obtaining state funds. The 1949 enactment also stated that ultimately the property owners would repay the state.

Defects in the '49 legislation became apparent. Districts with great overcrowding and double sessions were given lower priorities than districts without such problems. The limitation that not more than 5 million dollars could be allocated in any month has worked hardships on districts that have low priority numbers.

Bills have been introduced to ease these restrictions and get the money spent on needed school buildings. These bills will doubtless pass both houses and become law.

SUBVERSIVES—As a result of the Korean war there has been tremendous pressure to take action against the Communists.. The governor has proposed a loyalty oath for all public employees and civilian defense volunteers which will probably pass. Also, the Anti-Sabotage Act of 1941 will doubtless be reenacted.

More extreme measures, such as those sponsored by Senator Tenney of Los Angeles, will probably be defeated. Despite the prevalence of a certain hysteria, many legislators disapprove of infringement on civil liberties in the guise of combatting communism.

SOCIAL WELFARE—The major social welfare bill is a measure to give financial assistance to those persons permanently and totally disabled.

Congress, in its recent amendments to the Social Security laws, authorized grants of $30 per month in matching funds, provided that the states made a grant to these unfortunates.

Bills have been introduced to provide for not more than $75 per month for the disabled. $30 will come from the federal government, $5 from the counties and the balance from the state.

This measure will pass the assembly, but the senate will probably table the matter until the next regular session in January, 1951.

What Ho .. Games of Chance Bloom on Strip

Despite a state law, effective since July, banning even the possession of gambling devices, such devices are reported in this area by The Knave, in his "Daily Knave" column in last Monday's Oakland Tribune.

In fact, according to The Knave, the new blossoming seems to be doing pretty well, what with payments of federal taxes on gambling devices, operation of claw machines and one-ball pin games, and cash payoffs.

Following is The Knave's column of last Monday, in full.

Well, the boys behaved for a few weeks, anyway.

But it seems that fear of California's new slot machine law is dissipating, and Bay area gamblers have decided virtue is not, after all, much of a reward.

Along the Tunnel Strip erstwhile slot machine players are finding they can lose their dough just as quickly in newly-installed claw machines, a variation of the old-fashioned miniature steam shovels that used to pay off in stale candy and cheap prizes.

Today they're paying off in cash, over the bar . . . on the infrequent occasions they pay off at all, y'understand.

And there are signs of returning life at such noted establishments as the Trocadero, the Wagon Wheel, and certain other establishments our operatives keep an eye on.

Just a few days ago the Internal Revenue Bureau reported it had issued tax certificates on 1,081 gambling devices in Northern California since the state law banning their possession went into effect last July.

Uncle Sam, you know, ignores moral considerations when financial ditto are involved. He insists on a $100 tax for each machine.

Inference that operators who have paid the federal tax are deliberately defying the state law is only partially correct.

Most of the slot machines, the real old one-armed bandits, which are listed in government files, are on military reservations, immune to state laws.

But "gambling device" taxes are being collected on one-ball pin games and rejuvenated claw machines which are, particularly the latter, appearing in places which are not, or should not be, immunte.

Those law enforcement officers who could never describe whether a slot machine was a gambling instrument will probably find themselves unable to determine whether one-ball games or claw machines are covered by the state slot machine ban.

And, considering that they never could see a slot machine even when pulling the handle personally, it is a fair assumption that they will be unable to locate any of the substitute devices.

In this connection they may be given some assistance. Federal tax records list the name of the taxpayer and the address of the premises on which the "gambling device" is operating. Some one might decide to furnish the law with a copy of the list, publicly displayed.

This could be important because the new law bans mere possession, which puts at least nine sharp points in the law.

There are several cases which establish one-ball games as gambling devices and at least one which so classfies claw machines.

And this, let it be noted, was back in 1939, right here in Oakland, when the operator of one of the old fashioned jobs that occasionally gave out merchandise but always returned at least one soggy peanut, was convicted.

Dr. Baldwin M. Woods, of the U.C. mechanical engineering department, convinced the jury that the claim of skill in manipulating the tiny steam shovel was erroneous.

Operators of real steam shovels have several controls, he testified. They can move the bucket back and forth, guide its descent and lift, and govern the opening and closing of its jaws.

The sucker who played a claw machine could do no more than spot the bucket over a tantalizing object. From then on the machine operated mechanically and at great profit to the owner, he proved.

Today they don't fool around with peanuts or candy, or with prizes.

The machines now getting a play along the Tunnel Strip have metal fish or animals, each with a colored ribbon tied around it, imbedded in colored gravel. And the old-fashione buckets, which used to grab something once in a while, have been replaced by three-pronged devices which practically never hold anything. Furthermore, you can't get either a fish or a piece of gravel out of the machine.

If a real accident occurs and you do lift a beribboned object, you yell for the bartender and he pays off.

Should you have any doubt whether that's gambling, answer this one: Does the operator who pays a federal gambling device tax thereby admit that his machine is a gambling device?

Turning to more expansive fields, we have reports that anti-inflationary activities are increasing. Dice tables, blackjack games, and other time-tested devices for reducing take-home pay are running full blast again.

But not wide open, not yet. The boys are still cautious.

F'rinstance, one place which hides behind a high board fence is practically impregnable.

A hard-faced gent survey prospective customers through a peep-hole in the stout door, and tell strengers to "get th' hell outa here."

Which is no way to build up a business. It forces the customer to go out on the Tunnel Strip and try to catch metal fish.

Captain Sandford Sez:

WHAT DO YOU THINK of Malik's stupid side-stepping and shadow-boxing and endeavoring to get us to lower our guard now that things are shaping up better?

It is weak and stupid and an insult to the intelligence of any nation or person. If it is our desire to have democracy continue thre is only one method that can bring success and that methods is not futil negotiation.

All this discussion about atomic bombs and weapons in warfare and their use and abuse is absolutely asinine.

The nation that gets there "fustus with the mostus" will always be the winner, and the atomic bomb is undoubtedly more deadly than a .22 calibre rifle bullet.

Any sane, level-headed, thinking person knows that war and killing are an appalling, degrading and disgusting method of adjusting problems and yet it appears that we must be governed by the law of the wild, the survival of the fittest.

Sutton's Presents New Rainwear

Rain footwear is now styled to give you graceful appearance as well as protection against the elements.

In rain footwear smart rubber military boots with a feminine touch have been acclaimed as a sharp, precise style. They are a fitting counterpart to the slim boyish popularity.

Another wet weather foot problem has been solved this year! Something new. Galoshes for wedgies!

It's the answer to making your shoes useful the year around. Sutton's Shoe Shoppe of Lafayette carries a complete stock of this new model in a variety of colors.

LEGAL SPEED LIMIT

In school zones, always slow down to the legal speed limit of 15 miles per hour, required when children are entering or leaving school, during recess or when school playgrounds are in use.

Mr. America's favorite shoe for Fall is the classic dark brown calf brogue, full wing tip pattern mith medallion and heavy perforations. It's a Nunn-Bush at Jim Shierry's, Lafayette.

PLAYING CHILDREN

When driving, keep alert for school zones and school children, advises the California State Automobile Association.

Men's Clothes Have Taller, Easier Lines

Taller, easier lines in medium to dark tones mark the new fashions for men this Fall of 1950.

Lighterweight fabrics have won the male heart completely and will carry on to Fall along with a variety of flannel, tweed, shetland and cheviot suits. Lightweights will also be featured for topcoats with saxonies, tweeds and shetlands.

Colors, taking a middle-of-the-road path, suggest the return of brown to the conservative male fashion fold. Browns can be expected to be seen in all shades from fawn and cocoa to rich, deep tones. Blue, too, promises to make a successful return. And grey, ever a menswear favorite, will hold its favored fashion place in the natural to oxford grey tones.

Counsel Center Open to Public

Demand for the vocational guidance service which was originally designed by the University of California to aid returning veteran students has resulted in the official opening of the Berkeley campus Counseling Center to the general public, it was announced today.

According to Dr. Baldwin M. Woods, vice-president of the university and director of University Extension, under whose auspices the Center has operated, members of the public have been accepted for counseling for some time on an "experimental basis."

Benefit Fashion Show on Saturday

First benefit event of the season for the Walnut Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay will be the annual Sub-Deb Fashion Show Saturday at the Claremont Hotel. Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Harold McCrum, Lafayette 2036.

November 4 is the date set aside by the members of the branch for their benefit barn dance at Legion Hall in Walnut Creek. Mrs. Donald Kientz, chairman, will be assisted by Mesdames Jack Turman, James McGeehon, Cliff Dahlgren, Paul Calloway, R. N. Burgess Jr. and Spencer Lehmann.

Simple Pumps Are Cut Low

With skirt lengths inching up and legs on view again, shoes are a more important part of the fashion picture than ever before.

The trend is toward simple feminine pumps with very low-cut vamps often following D'Orsay lines. These naked-looking shoes are nearly always closed, although there is an occasional open toe or heel, never both at once in the same shoe.

Silk braid and beading are the favorite ornamentation of shoe designers this season, says the National Shoe Institute.

BACKFIRING

Backfiring of an automobile engine may result from improper ignition and valve timing, wet ignition and faulty carburetion.

Enthusiastic Dramateurs Start Season

With prospects of another hit in "Guest in the House," an able Board of Directors and an enthusiastic membership, the Orinda Dramateurs are starting their 1950-51 season.

The Dramateurs, who are becoming more and more a part of Orinda living, and who are active supporters of the Orinda Association, want it known that everyone is welcome. The organization is open to membership to all who are interested in little theater, whether their interests lie in acting or in production and stagecraft.

NO STARS

Of particular note is the no-star system employed by the Dramateurs. Everyone, whether he is taking the lead in a production or helping paint or move sets, is of equal importance.

With each production you see new faces in the cast, and read new names on the program. That is one of the reasons newcomers to Orinda find the Dramateurs so pleasant.

Meetings are held the second Monday of each month in the Orinda Community Church.

REHEARSALS

When plays are in production all members are cordially invited to attend rehearsals. When and where rehearsals are held can be found by calling Fred Udall, president, Walnut Creek 6516; Laura Cooper, membership chairman, Orinda 2282. or Jeanette Wright, production manager, Orinda 2404.

"Guest in the House," by Hagar Wilde and Dale Eunson, is now in rehearsal, with production slated for November. First afternoon session will start with dessert at 12:30 at the home of Mrs. Jack Moylan, 21 El Gavilan.

Anyone interested in playing bridge or canasta with either group, please get in touch with Mrs. Downs, Orinda 8361, and make reservations with her.

4 New Members Added to Roster Of Rotary Club

Four new members were added to the Orinda Rotary Club roster at the meeting held Wednesday — Frank Branstetter manager of Orinda Country Club; Ernest Poll, Village cleaner; George Matey, engineering sales, and Tom Horton of Orinda Cleaning and Dyeing.

An informal indoctrination session was held at Orinda Country Club on Tuesday evening, attended by the new Rotarians and Frank Olson, Orinda Rotary president, who was assisted by Joe Sheaff and Bill Seroy in explaining the aims and purposes of the service club.

Galen Fisher of the Pacific School of Religion, one-time Orindan, will provide an especially interesting and timely talk about Korea at next Wednesday's meeting. Fisher, who returned only recently from Korea, will have authentic first-hand information about the embattled country. Clarence Betz is program chairman for the day.

This luncheon session will be held at 12:15 at a new location, Orinda Willows, according to Wayne Seroy, publicity chairman.

A joint meeting with the Orinda Lions as hosts will be held at the Willows on October 11, Seroy reported.

Award Glorietta School Paving

On a low bid of $6,450, Oliver de Silva, Inc., of Alameda, was recently awarded the contract for paving of playground areas at Glorietta School through action of the Orinda Union Grammar School District trustees.

Six contractors bid on the job.

'Twas the Real Luau for Guests At Jelton Estate

The Luau given in the Vad Jelton gardens in Happy Valley last Saturday evening was one of the most colorful parties the Orinda Branch of the Chillren's Hospital has ever given.

An avenue of flaming torches on tall standards lighted the tables which were set with lauhala mats and tropical flowers.

The swimming pool was afloat with Hawaiian orchids and gardenias.

SOFT MUSIC

Guitars and ukeleles strummed soft music, native dancers and singers entertained and the water ballet from the Athens Club staged one of their loveliest exhibitions.

The guests gathered around the barbecue pit in the orchard to watch the native boys remove the pigs and sweet potatoes which had been simmering there under a protective covering of ti leaves. Members were dressed in Hawaiian garb, with orchids and gardenias in their hair.

APPRECIATION

The Orinda Branch is anxious to express appreciation to the many friends who supported this affair in order that the Contra Costa children in the hospital may have adequate equipment and care. Particularly Pan American World Airways, which made it possible for the Hawaiian food and flowers to be flown in from the Islands.

Some familiar faces spotted during the evening were:

Messrs. and Mesdames William Harold Oliver, Harvey Lyon, Admiral Murray Royar, Vic Bergeson, William Babcock, Paul Ayer, Leland Scott, Chancey Pond, Elmer Booth, Jack Bottomley;

Hubert Breed, Frank Fee, Jr., Stuart Davis, Herman Eickmeyer, George Hauerken, Howard Kistner, Marion Plant, James North, J. C. Snow, Clay Sorrick;

Drs. and Mesdames Gordon Lamb, John Gompertz, Dudley Mell, A. E. Bennett, Edward Maloney, William Ornduff, Don Parle White.

Drive very carefully—the life you save may be your own.

Library Receives Many New Books

"Courtroom" by Quentin Reynolds, a newspaper reporter's story of the great defense lawyer Samuel Leibowitz and some of his cases, tops the new titles in Orinda Branch Library's September delivery of 106 books from Contra Costa County Library headquarters in Martinez.

"The Marx Brothers" by Crichton, "Reprisal" by Gordon, "Natchez Woman" by Walworth, "Glen Owen" by Williams are other current favorites included.

New and old fiction and books of general interest, all new to Orinda's shelves, make up the balance of adult additions. More than half this delivery consists of books for boys and girls who form such a large proportion of Orinda reading public.

Sport stories, horse and dog stories, picture books, factual books such as "Here's Your Hobby" by Zarchy, "Boys' Guide to Fishing" by Morton, "Glamorous Dolly Madison" by Desmond and "John Marshall, Boy of Young America" by Monsell, are represented. Complete lists of recent deliveries are posted on the bulletin board in the library, located in the Community Church building, open from 2 to 5 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday.

Wertheim to Talk To Garden Club

Ernest Wertheim, noted landscape architect and horticultural authority who has planned some of the beautiful gardens in Orinda, will be guest speaker at the meeting of Orinda Garden Club at Orinda Country Club Thursday at 10:30 a.m.

"Fall Bulbs for Orinda" will be the subject matter chosen by the guest speaker. Mrs. William Everts, garden club president, will preside at the meeting.

In our neighborhoods, please do drive carefully. How fast can you stop if a child runs into the street in front of your car?

Steps Taken for Episcopal Church Here

Both through circulation of petitions and by telephone, a survey has been underway to determine the interest of Orindans in establishing an Episcopal Church in this community.

Bishop Karl Block of the Northern California Diocese has assisted the large Orinda representation which has expressed a wish for such a move and has arranged for services to start October 15, 11 a.m., at the Scout House at Orinda Park Pool. The Rev. John Geene will be temporary rector.

RENT-FREE

The Boy Scouts have donated rent-free use of the building which is being prepared for the services by a committee headed by Walter Christie.

At a formative meeting held Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Sparling a temporary executive council was elected. Mrs. Sparling was chosen chairman of the group, which includes Walter Christie, Mrs. Clinton Easterbrook and Mrs. Seaver Ballard. A fifth member will be appointed later.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Residents of the area who have not yet been contacted in this survey and are interested in inauguration of the Episcopal services are invited to get in touch with any member of the executive council for further information.

A potluck supper at the Sparling home, 9 Highland Court, has been planned for October 26. Bishop Block will come to the affair to meet those who have gathered there in the interests of establishing the new services in Orinda. An invitation is extended to those who would like to have Episcopalian services in this locality.

Miehle OK! Fuses Can't Fuss Us—

We're keeping our fingers crossed—and we hope Miehle keeps its teeth in place.

Miehle, our somewhat temperamental press, after kicking teeth out of its transfer gear last week and the week before, was apparently in good shape yesterday. Hence, this issue of the SUN is back in its usual six-column format. (The previous two issues were printed on the CONCORD TRANSCRIPT'S eight-column press.)

Repair work was again performed on Miehle last Friday—and again he kicked teeth out (this time two of 'em), on a test run. Additional engineers came in and worked on Miehle all weekend and Monday. Miehle was then tested all day Tuesday.

Yesterday Miehle functioned okay, except for blowing a few fuses. But regarding such minor displays of prima-donna-ishness, we can laughingly inform Miehle, a la Jimmie Durante:

"Fuses? We've got a million of 'em—a million of 'em!"

Current Events Seminar Planned

A seminar on current events in international relations will be conducted by Walter Lipton of U. of C. at Acalanes Evening School, starting Wednesday evening Oct. 4, if present plans mature. The group will be limited to 25 persons, in order that each one will have the opportunity to participate.

Lipton has indicated that there will be some required reading in preparation for the weekly discussions, and that every one in the group will be expected to take part. Historical and anthropological backgrounds of various peoples and races will be touched on where needed to make more clear the reasons behind present international situations.

Lipton conducted a class at Acalanes Evening School last Fall and Spring on World affairs. This class promises to be even more interesting.

Persons desiring more information are asked to contact Frank A. Smith at Lafayette 4872 by this Saturday, September 30. A minimum of 20 people is needed to organize the class.

Section 3 Meets 11th

Section 3 of the Women's Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. C. W. Kersten on October 11. The devotions will be given by Mrs. H. Atkinson. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Loveland and Mrs. de Wolf.

Mallarys' Niece Weds Leo L. Levy

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin E. Mallary on Overhill Road was the scene of a morning wedding on September 16, when their neice, Mildred Arlene Mallary, repeated the traditional "I do" vows with Leo L. Levy of Sanborn Road. Dr. Holland F. Burr of the Piedmont Community Church officiated at the ceremony, which was attended by members of the immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman D. Mallary of Emporia, Kansas, parents of the bride, came to California to attend the wedding, for which Mrs. Mallary chose a forest green crepe dress accented with gardenias and pearls. Flowered organdy was worn by the groom's mother, who had a corsage of gardenias.

MOSS GREEN GOWN

A moss green ballerina length gown was worn by the bride, who carried a bride's bouquet of yellow rosebuds. Black mitts and sandals completed her ensemble. The bride's cousin and honor attendant, Mrs. Jean Ward, donned brown faille for the occasion, her corsage of tiger orchids.

Charles McIntosh served as best man to the groom.

KANSAS STATE STUDENT

Mildred was a student at Kansas State Teachers College at Emporia and also studied at the College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland, Leo, a former student at Acalanes High School, is an Army Air Force veteran. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leo S. Levy of Sanborn Road.

The couple, who left for Carmel on their honeymoon, will return October 1 to their apartment on Vermont Street, Oakland.

Therapy Center Aid Mapped by New Auxiliary

Mrs. Ida B. Zamloch entertained the board of the recently formed Mt. Diablo Child Therapy Auxiliary at the Orinda Country Club Thursday of last week, at lunch.

The afternoon was spent laying plans for two Orinda chapters—one to meet in the afternoon and one to meet in the evening.

Next event will be a tea for all prospective members, to be given the first part of October.

The present board for starting the movement consists of Mesdames Frank A. Brush, Robert L. Bigler, A. Keene Pettingill, Frank B. Hight, George R. Klement and Ida B. Zamlock.

Fellowship Plans Welcome Sunday

The Pilgrim Fellowship of the Orinda Community Church is planning to welcome all freshmen and new members to their meeting Sunday, 7 p.m.

The program will consist of a worship service, movie, recreation and refreshments.

Miltons Return From Long Tahoe Vacation

The Pierce Miltons have just recently returned from an extended vacation at Lake Tahoe. During their absence they "lent" their home to some of their city-bound friends, the William Witters of Oakland.

Mrs. R. Wilson Tells of Travels

Section 2 of the Women's Guild had an inspiring meeting Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. R. Price, 19 Via Hermosa. Assisting the hostess in the serving of dessert were Mesdames J. B. Wasson, Irene Marshall and George Bennett.

Mrs. Richard Hafner gave a five-minute report on current events in a most lucid manner. Mrs. Ralph Wilson followed with the devotions, which also constituted the afternoon's talk, tied in with her summer's travels throughout the east when she and her husband made it a point to visit the early churches of religious and historic fame.

Mrs. Wilson's hour-long talk was so reverent and so interesting that the group hated to have it end.

Seafarers Set Year's Meetings

The Seafarers met last Friday evening at the home of the Ralph Wilsons. During the business meeting the following schedule for meetings was adopted:

October, home of the W. Nicklas': November, with Clippers at the Community Church; December, probably no meeting; January, '51, E. Dawson and G. Penfield, hosts; February, the Morrows' and Cochranes' George Washington party at the church; March, home of Mrs. Ida Zamloch; April, home of E. T. Meakins; May, home of A. W. Elkintons; June, home of G. C. Browns; July, home of Clarence Hughes.

All members at last Friday's meeting enjoyed the beautiful slides projected by Wilson and by Rev. Fred Morrow showing scenes of their recent vacation travels and mountain camping, respectively. Other members told interesting bits about their summer outings.

Vows Exchanged By Nancy Lueck, Robert Dietrich

Escorted up the aisle of the First Congregational Church in Berkeley by her father, Roger H. Lueck of Brookside Road, Nancy Jean Lueck became the bride of Robert Imlay Dietrich at a 4 o'clock ceremony September 21.

White stock, asters and gladioli were used to decorate the chancel of the church for the vow exchange at which Dr. Vere V. Loper officiated in the presence of several hundred friends and relatives of the couple.

AT ALTAR LEVEL

Similar floral arrangements were used at the altar level with magnolia leaves and branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral candles. White stock and satin ribbon marked the pew ends along the aisle.

The bride wore a wedding gown combining satin and lace, the lace forming the vestee of the bodice, the Peter Pan collar and the waistline cummerbund. The skirt was fashioned with a train. A Juliet cap of the satin and lace held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried a shower bouquet of white orchids.

Nancy's sister, Peggy Eleanor Lueck, donned powder blue sheer over taffeta in a ballerina length frock for her honor attendant role. She wore matching blue slippers and a coronet of lace to complete her costume.

The bridesmaids, Marjorie Newell of Seattle, Marion Goldstein and Carol Cobb of Fresno and Susar Page of Hinsdale, Ill., wore identical gowns in toast shade over champagne taffeta, their coronets and slippers of matching hue. The bride's attendants each carried bouquets of chrysanthemums in fall shades to augment their ensembles.

COUPLE'S MOTHERS

Deep blue crepe, the back in paneled effect, was chosen by Mrs. Lueck for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother, Mrs. Russell D. Dietrich, wore pale gray chiffon trimmed with lace, her accessories in a matching shade.

Western Hawkins of River Forest, Ill., was best man for Bob. Ushers were Julian Chilcote, also of River Forest; Jack Eberle of Burlingame, Jack Williams of Oakland and Stuart Spence of Berkeley.

RECEPTION

The wedding reception immediatly following the ceremony was held at Orinda Country Club, where the newlyweds received guests before a background of white asters and glads.

Chicago will be their home after November 1, following their honeymoon at Del Mar.

Nancy Jean was a member of the class of '51 at Stanford University and her husband is an alumnus of Lake Forest College in Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich, the groom's parents, came from the East for the wedding.

Nancy Chantler Wed to Altan Fullaway

Nancy Chantler, daughter of the C. B. Chantlers of Orinda, was married last Saturday to Altan V. Fullaway of North Bend, Oregon.

The ceremony was held in the chapel of the First Congregational Church in Berkeley, Dr. T. F. Hudson of Oakland officiating. Dr. Hudson is an old-time friend of the parents of the groom, the S. V. Fullaways of Portland, Oregon.

After the wedding ceremony the reception for about 100 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, 64 Davis Road. It was a perfect Fall afternoon and the garden was especially lovely with tuberous begonias in full bloom.

The evening before the wedding the groom's parents were hosts at a dinner for the bridal party and their escorts at Hotel Claremont.

The newly married couple will spend their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, and then proceed to their home at North Bend, Oregon.

12-15 Work Aids Therapy Center

At the last meeting of the 12-15 Club, held at the home of Mrs. John Lax, while the group sewed on smocks for the Therapy Center, plans were made for another bridge or canasta party to swell the funds for the group's philanthropic projects.

It was decided to have this Fall party at the home of Mrs. Leo Alexander, 50 Via Hermosa.

Reservations for a table may be made through Mrs. Kenneth Anderson, Orinda 2894.

Yum-Eats Start Don's Birthday

Donald Phelps celebrated his seventh birthday in the jolliest way last Saturday. First there was a yummy luncheon at his home on 6 Oak Lane, and then he and his guests were taken by Daddy Ralph to Mosswood Park playground for an afternoon of fun.

Those enjoying these good times were Dick Stark, Gary and Sharon Swedberg, Billy and Cathy Cline and Donald's brother Kennie.

Blalocks Give a 'South' Barbecue

The Andrew Blalocks of Orinda entertained some of their friends last Sunday at a barbecue, Southern style. The pork ihops, especially, were out of this world, into their own world of the Deep South.

Among those present were the Nathan Grays, the Kirk Miles and the John Dorrs. The Dorrs, just recently from Orinda, have moved to Oregon; but for the Southern cooking, they left Oregon for Orinda—making the trip down in their own plane.

Joan Jacobus Starts At Cal as a Junior

Having completed two years at the University of Arizona, Joan Jacobus has entered the University of California as a junior. Her brother, Jim, is still slightly annoyed. He broke two ribs at the start of football practice and is now out for the rest of the season.

Fall's Time to Plan Your Flower Beds, Lawns—Don't Forget Planting of Bulbs

By BERT WRIGHT

BULB PLANTING time is near . . . get a copy of your garden supply dealer's bulb catalog and select varieties you will want to plant late this month and in October.

During this planning session keep in mind the color, height and blooming season. Make your bulb beds and borders with a plan in mind that will assure harmony and beauty.

LAWNS . . . Fall is nature's chosen lawn making time. If you don't have the dense heavy sod you would like in your lawn, now is the time to get to work.

The secret to lawn success is early Fall seeding and liberal feeding of complete plant food.

PERENNIALS . . . Inspect your perennial bed and borders. If some of them produced small blooms this past summer or if the stems are crowded, they probably need dividing.

Cut off and burn all top growth as soon as they die down. This will prevent wintering over of many insects and disease in the plant stalks and leaves.

LAWN WEEDS . . . The Fall rains and the cooler weather may bring a new growth of weeds into your lawn. If so, get out your sprayer and selectvie lawn weed chemicals and control them to make room for Fall seeded grass.

OXALIS BULBS . . . These bulbs can be potted this month. Use a loose, porous and fertile soil. Give the plant plenty of sunlight and water during the growing season.

When blooming is over, reduce the water gradually and store in a dry place in cellar, leaving the bulbs in the pot.

GREEN MANURE . . . Sow winter rye (2 lbs. per 100 sq. ft.) in the vegetable plot and other bare areas this Fall. Spade the rye under next spring, thus adding to the humus supply of the soil and improving the structure.

Feed the rye liberally at planting time; you will not lose this plant food, it will merely be stored in the tissues of the rye plants until next summer, when decay will release the valuable nutrients slowly.

Men's Garden Club Hears Talk on Seeds

New development of seeds was the subject discussed by Melvin Warren at Monday night's meeting of the Mt. Diablo Men's Garden Club at Nick's Place in Martinez.

Warren, who has had experience as a grower of seeds in South America, showed movies on seed development.

A report on the recent Contra Costa County Fair at Antioch was made by Joe Linsler.

HEADS MARCH OF DIMES

Lawrence Mario Giannini, president of the Bank of America, has accepted the chairmanship of the 1951 March of Dimes in California, Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, disclosed. This marks Giannini's second consecutive year as head of the National Foundation's fund-raising appeal in California.

Orchard Nursery Plans Open House

Plans are now under way by the Orchard Nursery of Lafayette for its second annual open house October 21 and 22. This event was an outstanding success last year, with over 3,000 people attending.

Among features to be included will be an African violet show with dozens of varieties of this increasingly popular house plant on display.

Educational booths on planting and general gardening will again be on display, manned by well-known garden experts, including Arthur Navelet, Norvill Gillespie, Ernest Wertheim and many others.

Some very new and interesting colored movies on gardening will be shown both days.

First 'Messiah' Rehearsal Set

First rehearsal for "The Messiah" will be held at Acalanes High School Monday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in Room 305. All former members of the chorus and others who might be interested are invited.

Bruce Handley will again direct the chorus. A tentative date of December 10 has been set for this third annual concert.

A steering committee to assist the director held its first meeting September 20. Committee members are Elnor Smith of Danville, treasurer; Mrs. C. E. Peters of Walnut Creek, corresponding secretary; Fred Dietz, Lafayette, membership; May Lizbeth Patterson, printing of posters, programs, cards; Don Merchant, Walnut Creek, stage arrangements, and Edna Collins, Lafayette, publicity.

Diamond K Sez . . .

THERE IS NOT a better time to begin to think about your winter problems around the home than right now.

As we remarked last week, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

LET'S TALK about driveways this week.

When the rains come, are you going to have to park your car in the street and fight your way to and from the garage? If you are unprepared, you will be pleasantly surprised to find out how inexpensively we can solve your "sloppy-driveway" problems.

We are prepared to furnish base rock or gravel at a minimum cost and for those of you who prefer "black top," drop in and see us. We have a plan whereby you will be able to hard surface your driveways and play yards at a fraction of the cost you might imagine.

If you don't believe us, drop in or call us and we will be happy to furnish an estimate free of charge. If you have any particular problems, drop in and talk them over with us.

HAVE YOU COMPLETED your improvement and summer building projects yet? Remember, some of your work probably will call for water-proofing. Thompson's Water Seal is a clear non-staining water-sealer with a 100 and 1 household uses.

It can be applied on wood, cement, flagstone, brick and other porous surfaces with great success and is ideal for using on the fireplace and mantel to keep from staining. Thompson's Water-Seal is available in containers ranging from half pint bottles to five gallon cans. Drop in and try some.

DAR Chapter Has Garden Party at Woodland Lodge

About 200 members and friends of the Daughters of the American Revolution gathered in the spacious gardens of Woodland Lodge, Lafayette, for a dessert, garden party sponsored by Acalanes Chapter D.A.R., Monday afternoon. Mrs. Harvey B. Lyon, regent of the local chapter, opened her home for this lovely benefit affair.

Preceding the garden party, the chapter members enjoyed luncheon at the patio with the honored guests, including Mrs. Charles Haskell Danforth, Palo Alto, reporter general to the Smithsonian Institute; Mrs. Edgar Atkinson Fuller, Santa Monica, California state regent, and Mrs. Bruce Livingston Canage, Berkeley, California state vice-regent.

ACALANES MEMBERS

Among those from Acalanes Chapter lunching were Mesdames A. L. Ammon, George Bennett and Dudley Nebeker, Orinda; Mesdames Dana Hamlin, Ernest Ford, Elliott Johnson and Fred Knobel, Lafayette; Mrs. Robert Pruitt, Moraga; Mrs. Robert G. Windeler, Concord, and Mrs. Ralph Dewey, Berkeley.

In addition to guests from all sections of California, Mrs. David W. Swift, a member of Shanghai Chapter, Shanghai, China; Mrs. W. H. Parson, Mt. Vernon Chapter, Alexandria, Virginia, and Mrs. I. J. Gutte of Maricopa Chapter, Phoenix, Arizona, were among the visitors.

COMIC PROGRAM

Following introduction of the honored guests, a delightfully comic program was presented by David Fulmer of the Strawhatters.

The afternoon affair was given to benefit D.A.R. projects, both state and national. The state project of special interest is the Neighborhood Center in East Los Angeles, which is considered "an investment in the real wealth of our country, its youth, the future citizens of America."

MANY SCHOOLS

There are many schools sponsored by the D.A.R., as well as the student loan fund. There is special work carried on at Angel Island with the immigration authorities that interests all California members, as well as many other worthwhile projects.

The next meeting of the chapter will be held at the home of Mrs. Elliott Johnson on October 9.

Tom Hageman Plays Tonight on TV Show

Tom Hageman, son of the Jack Hagemans of Monroe Street, will be guest artist on Freddie Martin's television program over KGO at 8:30 tonight, from the Mural Room of the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco. Tom will play the flute and piccolo.

Model for New Therapy Center

One of the most interesting floats in the Walnut Festival parade Sunday was the one entered by the Mount Diablo Child Therapy Center.

This entry represented a model of the proposed rehabilitation center. The model was constructed of discarded refrigerator crates. It was mounted on a truck which was donated by Ralf Maki Motors of Lafayette, who also donated a tank full of gasoline.

The float was designed and executed by Barbara Knapp, therapist; E. W. Druhe, member of the center's board of directors, and several patients.

Pick Staff for Acalanes Paper

New staff members for the Acalanes bi-weekly school paper, Blueprint, were selected this week. Under direction of their new editor-in-chief, Howard Flanders, staff members settled down to the problem of production of the first issue for the 1950-51 school year.

Chosen for staff positions were Nancy Dieterich, business manager; Pat Malvey and Rosemary Sorge, news editors; Julie Landis and Shirley White, associate advertising managers; Sara Spoon, feature editor; George Fowler, sports editor; Linda Meade, exchange editor.

On the reporting staff are Joan Allen, Ken Ernst, Don Kun, Ann Parker, Lawrence Littell, Stanley Pedder, Mary Thies, Jerry Vurek, Carol Earle, John Early, Jack Lloyd, Pat Miles, Bill Needham and George Reichert.

Format of the paper is being changed from a four column, six page miniature tabloid to a five column, four page standard tabloid size.

Moraga Valley Stages Suspends; Keeps Franchise

After almost three months of effort to popularize its bus run between Oakland and the Glenside district, Moraga Valley Stages suspended operations last Saturday, due to insufficient passengers.

Announcement of the suspension was made by Robert A. Burrowes of Alameda, co-owner of the bus line, who explained that in the total period of operation "only two days were a paying proposition."

INDUCTION ORDERS

Another factor in the decision to suspend, he said, was receipt of Army induction orders by co-owner Richard J. Carpenter of Oakland.

"That would mean that someone else would have had to be hired to drive his shift," Burrowes said. Both Burrowes and Carpenter have been driving the bus.

1 TRIP A MONTH

In order to hold on to its franchise, Moraga Valley Stages will make one round-trip run on the first weekday of each month, Burrowes said. First such monthly token run will be next Monday, October 2.

Burrowes expressed hope that some day the firm might be able to resume operations, adding that he and Carpenter had told the people of Canyon and Montclair (in Oakland) of this hope. Those two sections, he said, provided by far the greatest percentage of the line's passengers.

Burrowes reported that Canyon furnished 42 per cent of the bus line's revenue, Montclair 46 per cent, Moraga 5 per cent, St. Mary's College 2 per cent and Glenside a fraction of 1 per cent.

300 More Enter Adult Classes

Enrollment in the Acalanes Adult School jumped 300 students this week, pushing total attendance to over 1,000, according to David Stewart, Acalanes Adult director.

Stewart announced that a class in elementary bookkeeping emphasizing pratical work on ledgers and records will start next Wednesday.

A beginning photography course featuring instruction in lab work and printing is also slated to start soon. Seats are also open for those interested in taking public speaking.

Nope, Even Poison Oak Can't Stop It!

Not even poison oak can block an Orinda youngster's birthday party, as you'll learn if you read far enough in this article.

And when there are twin children in the family, are you under the illusion that the two kids are satisfied with a run-of-the-mill shindig? Silly thought! The party in that case just becomes twice as good and twice as important.

For further information on these and related points, keep right on reading.

SWEDBERG TWINS

The Swedberg twins, Gary and Sharon, celebrated their seventh birthday September 21. The dinner party from 5 to 7:30 was attended by the following: Joyce Bailey, Diana Kirsten, Thomas Kirby, Donald Phelps, Roger Hoyer and brother Randy.

TERRY KOHLER

Terry Kohler was five years old September 23 and had the following guests for ice cream and cake, followed by games: Jane Seaman, Kitty Wilbur, Roxanne Tess, Maurine Downs, Susie Jackson and Cassandra Coates.

STEVE BECKETT

Steve Beckett had a Hopalong Cassidy party Saturday, September 23, to celebrate his sixth birthday. The following joined him: Carolyn Coburn, Richard Roos, Jimmy Roos, Roger Roos, Jack Gilbert, Vinnie Gilbert, Chris Felchlin, Don Flenner and Steve and R. J. Beckett.

RICHARD NORMAND

Richard Normand was joined Sunday, September 24, by six of his friends for lunch followed by a show the occasion being his 12th birthday. The following attended: Chip Peacock, Laird Eichmyer, Roger Peterson, Jimmy Stewart, Wade Wallace and Smedley Ambler.

VIRGINIA GIBBINS

Virginia Gibbins had to postpone her party due to poison oak, but she finally had it Saturday, September 23, and it was well worth waiting for. Her whole Brownie troop was invited to join in ice skating at the Berkeley Rink. Wasn't that a nice way to spend her eighth birthday?

Those joining in the fun were: Cindy Rasmussen ,Carol March, Janice Twining, Patty Ann Brown, Sally Young, Carolyn Cullen, Joan Borden, Due Kisner, Margaret Bodfish, Saundra Thurston, Susan Jensen, Jane Loman, Jean Cosby and Virginia's cousins, Meryl Gibbins and Louise and Helen Hotle.

Over 300 Attend Dinner-Dance of Pandora Chapter

The weather was in accord with the plans of Pandora Chapter of the Children's Home Society when more than 300 members and guests attended the chapter's dinner-dance at Diablo Country Club last Saturday night.

Those present dined with time out for dancing both in the ballroom and on the outdoor terrace, with a bingo game also provided for the amusement of guests.

Funds derived from the affair will be used for the benefit of youngsters provided for through the society.

Mrs. Fred Crawshaw was in charge of arrangements for the event, assisted by Mesdames Alex Poulsen, K. J. St. Clair, Loyd Callaway and John Cooper. Mrs. Rudy Rasmussen was chairman of ticket sales.

Lindsey Spights Now Back From Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Spight have just returned from a trip to Portland, at which time they bade farewell to their son, Dick, who is a student at Oregon State. Their other son, Jim, is back at College of the Pacific.

Scouting Plans Discussed at Meeting

Boy and Girl Scouts, their accomplishments and coming needs were discussed at a meeting in the Orinda Community Church Saturday by Mrs. Vernon L. Axelson, Community chairman for the Girl Scouts in Orinda, and Gordon Hawkins, newly appointed executive director for the Boy Scouts in the Diablo Valley Area.

Attending the meeting were den and Cub mothers and other interested in Scouting who will be aiding in the annual Scout drive beginning on October 15.

Ms. F. R. Devin, finance chairman, will be in charge of the drive and will be aided by Mrs. F. R. Ready, Mrs. Ritchie Smith, Mrs. William Thurlow and Mrs. John Gompertz.

Among others attending the meeting were Mesdames Rudy Rasmussen, Warren Fletcher, Thomas Moore, Joseph DeMaria, Frank J. Dutra, A. R. Doty, Stewart Kimball, Charles Camp, Pierce Milton, Bruce Howard and P. F. Kops.

Health Committee Meets; Map Plans For Cooperation

A meeting of the health committee of the Orinda Mothers' Club took place yesterday.

Mrs. William Brailsford, chairman of the committee, met with Mrs. Johnson of the Contra Costa Public Health Department to discuss plans for cooperation during the coming year.

Last year, the committee helped in obtaining eye and ear tests for both Orinda schools.

Mothers Club Room Meetings October 5, 6

First room meeting of the Orinda Mothers Club has been scheduled. Glorietta 5th grade (Mr. Murphy, teacher) will meet next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Marvin Bonds, 11 Oakwood Road, at 3 o'clock.

Combined kindergartens of Glorietta (Miss Haviside, teacher) will meet next Friday, October 6, at the home of Mrs. T. M. Harrer, 7 Oak Circle, at 3 o'clock.

Joseph Sheaff, principal; Mrs. J. Schwarck, president of the Mothers Club and the teachers of the grades concerned will be present to answer any questions, discuss problems and give a general outline of the year's program for that grade.

Lions' Barbecue Date: Tomorrow

Orinda Lions Club will hold its annual barbecue tomorrow, with St. Mary's College picnic grounds chosen as locale for the gala affair.

Lions have been urged to invite their friends to attend.

CHRRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

For the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon this Sunday, October 1, on the subject "Unreality" the Golden Text will be read from Jeremiah: "What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the Lord" (23:28).

The sermon will be comprised of citations from the Bible and from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following:

Isaiah 41:15, 16: "Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth; thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff. Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the Lord, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel."

Science and Health: "The temporal and unreal never touch the eternal and real. The mutable and imperfect never touch the immutable and perfect. The inharmonious and self-destructive never touch the harmonious and self-existent. These opposite qualities are the tares and wheat, which never really mingle, though (to mortal sight) they grow side by side until the harvest; then, Science separates the wheat from the tares, through the realization of God as ever present and of man as reflecting the divine likeness" (p. 300).

Drive very carefully—the life you save may be your own.

Pack 52's First Meeting Oct. 6th

In their first session of the year, Orinda Cub Pack 52 and prospective members, together with their parents, will attend the pack meeting to be held at Orinda School on October 6.

Cubs have been asked to add cowboy gear to their regular uniforms to carry out the western theme chosen for the year's program, according to Bob Anthonisen, publicity chairman.

All members are to bring their den handicraft to exhibit at the meeting, with one boy from each group to be prepared to explain the display of his den.

Prospective Cub Scouts and their parents are invited to be at the meeting, which will be concluded with the serving of refreshments by Cubs of Den 2 and their den mothers.

Flames Damage Ardilla Rd. Home

Fire which apparently started when flames shot up from an overheated grease pan on the kitchen stove caused about $250 estimated damage at the home of F. Bradley at 39 Ardilla Road late yesterday afternoon ,according to the Orinda Fire Department.

Communion Rites Twice at Sunday Orinda Services

World Communion will be celebrated twice at Orinda Community Church Sunday morning, at 8 in the Episcopal service conducted by a representative of the Diocesan Committee on Missions, and again at 11 when Rev. Fred Morrow will be assisted by the Community Church diaconate in administration of the Sacrament.

At the latter hour members will be received into the congregation.

The choir, directed by Margaret Popovich and accompanied by Virginia Baker, will sing a Communion anthem, "Let Us Break Bread Together." Mrs. Popovich will also sing a solo number.

At 9:30 the Sunday church school will celebrate Rally Day by encouraging return of all pupils not yet registered for the fall term and the giving of Bibles to 50 boys and girls who are entering its fourth grade classes.

At 7 p.m. the Pilgrim Fellowship offers opportunity for worship, discussion and recreation for high school age youth.

STORK ..CLUB..

Mrs. George Hickok is happily announcing to all her friends that she now has a grandson. He is the first arrival to the home of William M. Hechtman and wife Virginia.

Born at the Alta Bates Hospital September 13, he weighed 7 pounds, 8 ounces ,and is to be named George Judson after his grandfathers.

Drive very carefully—the life you save may be your own.

Summer Fights A Losing Game

Orinda weather is having a difficult time convincing itself that cooler days are due about now, with the mercury as undecided as a pedestrian stranded in the middle of the Crossroads with the signal lights turning red.

In what was probably one of his last splurges of energy, Old Sol presented us with 92 degrees of his specialty, heat, on September 21. marking the high spot for the week from September 20 to September 26.

He really had to work at it, too, what with the temperature at a low of 47 degrees the night before. The thermometer registered the same low on the 22nd, too, which should convince summer it has fought a losing game.

Winter will bring the first line team on the field before long. Whose side are you rooting for?
